

Friendship in Adversity: Ruth 1: 1-22 & beyond

1. What do we learn about Naomi's character despite her misery in vv. 6-9?
2. What does the story of Ruth show us about the priorities and values of Orpah and Ruth? How might this challenge us? vv. 14-18
3. How does Ruth put her friendship into action? s. chapter 2
4. What does Ruth's story show us about the importance of perseverance and hope in the face of adversity? Where did she draw her strength from?
5. Have you been blessed by Godly friendships in times of wilderness or adversity?
6. What does this story show us about our own vulnerability? About the vulnerability of others? About how we should treat those who are vulnerable or in need? s. Ch. 2:8-13
7. How can we be more like Ruth and Boaz in our relationships with others?